THE BOBBIN COLLECTION

BY TURNER POCOCK
FOR CHELSEA TEXTILES

Chelsea Textiles, together with leading interior design studio Turner Pocock, are delighted to announce a furniture collaboration, the 'Bobbin' collection.

Also known as 'Spool' furniture, the type was first seen in the mid 17th Century in the US and Northern Europe, when makers began using off-cuts from factories producing sewing bobbins to create whimsical designs for chairs, beds, cribs and more. The trend took off in the United States particularly, thanks in part to mass-production. By the late 1800s bobbin factories were selling their entire inventory to furniture makers, keeping their wooden strips of bobbins uncut so as to service the interiors industry.

This domestic yet also deeply romantic furniture aesthetic fits perfectly both with Turner Pocock's emphasis on comfort and quality family living, and with Chelsea Textiles' ethos of faithfully recreating antique textiles and furniture, making heirlooms for future generations. Every piece of Chelsea Textiles furniture is hand-made, hand-painted and distressed by their master craftsmen employing traditional techniques and with precise attention to detail, using materials carefully chosen to withstand the test of time.
